

Richard Sung

“Web Developer. Receptive Learner. Spontaneous Planner.”

Experience

General Assembly: New York, NY

WDI Student, Winter 2013 – Spring 2014

- 12 week boot camp on web development.
- Developed in a Rails and Javascript environment.
- Topics include TDD, APIs, AJAX, and Agile.
- Create three websites during project weeks.

The Hackerati: New York, NY

Academy Student, Summer 2013

- Participated in a three week long pilot course in Python, front-end web, and Git.

Trinity College: Hartford, CT

Senior Project Researcher, Fall 2011 – Spring 2012

- Researched studies and trends on Machine Learning, Sentiment Analysis, and Twitter.
- Implemented a model using a parser to classify the sentiment of twitter posts.

Fitango: New York, NY

Software Development Intern, Summer 2010

- Worked in a PHP/MySQL and AJAX environment.
- Deployed features, including a site wide rating system on action plans for public release.
- Investigated SEO methods on AJAX page.

Education

Winter 2014 General Assembly: New York, NY

2008 - 2012 Trinity College: Hartford, CT
BS in Computer Science, Japanese minor

2010 - 2011 International Christian University:
Tokyo, Japan

2003 - 2008 The Dalton School: New York, NY

Skills

Programming Languages & Markup

Ruby, Javascript, HTML/CSS, SQL, Java, Python, PHP, C, Assembly

Libraries/Frameworks

Rails, Sinatra, Rspec, Capybara, jQuery, Backbone.js, Phaser, D3.js, Mocha, Bootstrap, Skeleton

Version Control & Deployment

Git, Heroku, Pivotal Tracker, Subversion

Language

Experience in Japanese (Written & Verbal)

Interests

When not busy coding...

- I practice Aikido three times a week.
- I am a fan competitive gaming. I play, follow tournaments, and attend barcrafts.
- During my time abroad in Tokyo, I traveled around Japan, tried snowboarding, and ate blowfish.

Contact

Portfolio: rsung26.github.io

Email: rsung26@gmail.com

Github: github.com/rsung26

LinkedIn: linkedin.com/in/rsung26